78 Days Practical Transurfing: based on the work of Vadim Zeland Vadim Zeland

Transurfing is simple, yet powerful Reality Management Technique, developed by the Russian quantum physics researcher Vadim Zeland. Zeland's main goal is to present a set of techniques (which he calls Transurfing of Realities) for the attainment of practical goals. These techniques are of mental and metaphysical nature. Zeland supports these techniques by presenting a model of the universe that combines the elements of quantum physics with the idea of parallel worlds. As Zeland states, the use of the techniques is not dependant on the acceptance of his theoretical model. Some Transurfing techniques are very simple and practical. Zeland says: " You can not hide from the inevitable reality. Your life is determined by circumstances and your place in society. Reality develops for the most part regardless of your own will. For every "I want" there is its own "You can't". In response to "Give it to me" you hear "You can't get it". There is little you can you do in such circumstances.... As a rule, human beings behave unambiguously. In their attempts to get what they want, they try to influence this world straight on, by the principle "Give it back to me". Direct impact, based on direct contact, is one of the ways of controlling something, but it is certainly not the most effective method of controlling reality. Transurfing is ..."
