What happens when we die? Have you seen a loved one, spoken to them, after their death? What does the spirit world contain? Or a better question might be, who does it contain? In "Talking to Ghosts" author Lynny Prince shares some of her paranormal experiences with the other side; things that made her question everything she believed about the spirit world, and convinced her that it does indeed exist. Included are full color photos of anomalies she has captured on film. Things that go bump in the night just got real.
