The Prince of Mafia Princes (Louie Morelli Book 4) Patricia Bellomo

Bellomo's enigmatic mobster, Louie Morelli, goes to war with the Russian mafia in the fourth book of her "Louie Morelli" series, The Prince of Mafia Princes.

Life is good for Louie Morelli. He's rich, happily married, and having a fling with the blonde in his office. Louie's even convinced himself that he's just another South Florida entrepreneur. Then he discovers that his son, Tony, is being blackmailed by a couple of enterprising escorts and their nefarious associates. A meeting with a Russian mob boss is supposed to put an end to Tony's troubles, but Louie's inquiries set off a chain reaction, beginning with the brutal murder of a call girl. The next day Louie's best friend, Victor DeAngelis, is gunned down on the Fort Lauderdale strip. While Victor fights for his life, Louie tracks his would-be assassin, exposing himself and his family to a ruthless killer. After dodging bullets on his own driveway, Louie is determined to retaliate. But before he can act, the FBI steps in. And, suddenly, life is so not good for Louie.
