Liberation Preaching: The Pulpit and the Oppressed (Abingdon preacher's library) Justo L. Gonzalez
From the back cover: While the world is awakening to the need for human liberation, equality, and justice, ministers have become increasingly aware "of oppression as the fundamental condition to which all preaching must be addressed." After a careful discussion of the basis and background of liberation theology, the Drs. Gonzalez deal with the primary question of biblical interpretation. They thoroughly discuss the obstacles which impede a liberating interpretation of scriptural passages, offer specific suggestions for overcoming these obstacles, and bring new light on how to hear afresh familiar scriptures in order to appropriate their meaning in liberating ways.
