Sherman Meets The Snow Princess Elayna Alexandra Flodin

A little discouraged but unable to give up on his dream of seeing snow, Sherman decided he would take a tiny short nap, to get just enough energy to think clearly but not enough to start his all winter long sleep when all of a sudden he fell so fast asleep, despite his best intentions, he started to snore and have the most amazing dream of his little web footed life.

Sherman makes a wish to see and play in snow, something frogs do not do. Along with granting his wish the Snow Princess used her magic to give him a gift. Uncertain as to whether or not his gift is a good thing, Sherman begins to understand that he can make a difference even though he is small. Now he can enjoy playing in snow as well as helping others in danger in the snow.
