We cannot wait for you to get your hands on one of the most emotionally heartfelt compilations of female perseverance. The co-authors of this book have dug deep in bringing their stories to life all for the purpose of inspiring those facing adversity to take control and rise above. Included here are harrowing accounts of domestic conflict and alcoholism, emotional turmoil, and sexual abuse; tales of perseverance in the face of financial adversity and physical disability; reflections of a grandmother, who only recent came to understand her painfully shy childhood; and the heart-wrenching story of a young woman who lost her mother, only to find her life's path after finally letting herself grieve. These are just some examples you will discover when you immerse yourself in these fifteen powerfully written, real-life stories of struggle matched by personal success. You will learn that no one has the ability to stop you from achieving your goals and dreams. Most importantly, you will realize the only one who can stop you, is you.
