Break Free Lynnita Mattock

Kathleen Cooper's life changes abruptly when a vicious mountain lion attacks her while she is hiking with her husband in the Colorado Rockies. Her husband reveals his true character when, instead of helping her, he runs away. Devastated, Kathleen breaks free from her life with him and flees to Switzerland. Kathleen's search for a different life thrusts her in and out of trouble, leads her to new friends who share her passion for climbing, and reshapes her perception of her own family's secretive past.

This action-filled story will intrigue and entertain you from beginning to end. Its colorful settings in Colorado and Switzerland lend an authentic background to this poignant adventure of a woman forced to break free from a meaningless and emotionally disparaging existence.
