Handsome tattoo artist, Griffin Bell had been focused only on one thing since buying Inked from his best friend, Dante Braden. He wanted to beat his biggest competitor, Lexington Brand at the upcoming tattoo competition. He wasn't about to get distracted by anything or anyone until Ceanna Gibson walked through the front doors of Inked looking for a job. Ceanna Gibson knew there was only one tattoo shop that was worthy of her talents with a tattoo machine...Inked and Griffin Bell in Los Angeles, California. She packed up her bags and moved there in hopes of making it big. However one thing happened she never expected...Griffin. She hated him on the spot and wouldn't work for him if he came begging on his hands and knees.
