Point to happy, point to sad, point to what you feel.

Pointing is a key skill in learning to communicate. Some children have a hard time acquiring this skill, but adults can help children learn to point, a valuable communication skill.

Featuring faces of children expressing various emotions, Show Me How You Feel helps children communicate their own feelings.

Created with the assistance of an early intervention/autism expert, Show Me How You Feel includes easy instructions for parents and caregivers on how to teach pointing.
