People find themselves increasingly dissatisfied and even embittered in relationships when they feel they have to compromise all the time. Whether it be choosing whose family to visit for the holidays, or having to postpone their dream careers for the sake of their relationships, couples often end up compromising on matters which eventually degrade their own personality, and ultimately their joy in life. Compromise is essential, but not when it impacts you so deeply that it taints the flavor of your relationship. This is where the 80/20 rule comes into play. A new approach to relationship compromise, this principle helps you figure out those all-important issues that are essential to your long-term growth, and simultaneously who you are as a person. Without having to forsake your own core principles and those ambitions that define you, you will finally see compromise as a way to strengthen your bond with your partner, rather than weaken it. So, if you're ready to embrace this revolutionary approach to dating and relationships, and thereby create a life where you and your partner can compromise while still getting what's most important to you, then let's get started!
