The Adventures of Edge Walker: As Fate Would Have It Brian Burke

Set with traditional guidelines for the superhero genre but with a gay twist, this story introduces interesting homosexual and heterosexual characters with various agendas and different points of view making personal interaction and plot development intriguing for the reader. "This is a colorfully captivating tale of a hero whose personality is electric as his superhero abilities. Ryan Hunter Aka Edge Walker despite being antisocial is psychologically and physiologically ingrained to terminate the vicious acts of the goodfornothing sociopaths. Edge experiences inky matters in his not so antisocial acts. I can only hope Edge sheds some darkness and look forward to his brighter future." John Friend
