Surf's Up: The Legend of Kauhuhu Gary Weise

Eleven-year-old Daniel Bryant is an up and coming surfer, when the tragic death of his father and a brutal step-dad land him in the impact zone of life. Warned by his father in a dream, he sets off on an adventure with the most unlikely of characters to escape his nemesis, only to find another, more fearsome creature awaits him with a thirst for revenge. Why does it want him? What could he have done to something so very old? Who is this old man that is willing to take him halfway across the world on an old fishing boat? Pirates, kidnapers and creatures come to life in a novel filled with action, adventure, and a splash of heart that will have you reading with white knuckles and a box of tissues.
