Vivien and Rose T. T. Thomas

Vivien and Rose meet as teenagers in rural England in 1875, and quickly become sweethearts. Because of family enmity and the social standings of their families, their interaction is largely through letters for a couple years. Finally, Rose arranges for them to meet at Tapahanset Lodge. A case of mistaken identity leads to a romp through classic misunderstandings, missed meetings, and finally, a most inconvenient abduction to Barbados. Join this lively, unorthodox and perfectly matched couple as they make their way across the countryside and the ocean in pursuit of a love that absolutely won't give up!
