Al-the-Gator lives on a farm pond and has no enemy but man. Imagin his surprise when a tiny, slimy frog offers to save his life some day if Al doesn't eat him. Al finds the idea funny and releases Freddy Frog. After all he wasn't really hungry. One dark night, alligator hunters visit the pond. As men are the only enemies alligators have, does Al-the-Gator have a chance? At the back of the book are discussion questions and a "Learn More" section, since the facts in the book are based on the author's many years of studying alligators and frogs.
