Retiring to Spain: Women's narratives of nostalgia, belonging and community Anya Ahmed

This book is a study of nostalgia, belonging and community which provides a new theoretical framework for understanding retirement migration. It is the first account of retirement migration that focuses on the voices of retired workingclass British women, who are considering either return migration to the UK or permanent/temporary settlement in Spain. Through a narrative approach, we follow their journeys as they seek, recreate and construct community in a new context and their experiences of belonging and nonbelonging are unravelled. The book offers a critical perspective, challenging positivistic, essentialist definitions of community.
