The Black Mountain Book: A New Edition Fielding Dawson

From the back cover: "The only book about the school written by someone who went there. 'Black Mountain worked: we made a potent little mandala in an archaic valley in the Blue Ridge Mountains to be felt long into the future,' Dawson wrote in 1970. The 1990 version of the book contains twice as much material as the original text, as well as documents from Dawson's years at Black Mountain (1949-1953): photographs, drawings, letters, poems, class notes."
