The Plaza: The Jewel of Kansas City Kevin Sink

This large format coffee table book of dramatically original color photographs by Kansas City photographer Kevin Sink, captures the beautiful art and architecture of the Plaza, Kansas City's most cherished landmark. Each of the four chapters takes you on a journey around the Plaza from springtime through the holiday lights.

The photographs in the book are characterized by strong aesthetic appeal, just like the Plaza itself. The book takes the viewer through the Plaza and reveals the beautiful art and architecture that we sometimes pass by because of our hurried lifestyles. Many of the photographs capture spectacular and very transient light and the book has an especially satisfying collection of holiday lights images. An beautiful and elegant design by Lynette Ubel highlights the photographs.

A must have for those who have visited the Plaza for a day or have lived here for a lifetime.
