A return to the roots of the Apostolic Faith. A close look at what the Bible calls the "one faith." This is a study of the history of the faith of the Messiah of Israel and a comparative look at the modern Apostolic movement. Written from a oneness perspective generated by careful study of the Hebrew roots of this faith. This book deals with the New Covenant, the biblical concept of righteousness, the Great Tribulation, and the forthcoming entrance of God's people into the everlasting kingdom of God. It is a journey through the history of the faith and a fresh perspective that will challenge your understanding of what this faith is all about.
