Creative Grandparenting: How to Love and Nurture a New Generation Jerry Schreur, Judy Schreur, Erin Schreur

Loving grandparents Jerry and Judy Schreur offer creative and sound ways for grandparents to be involved with their grandchildren at every stage of their lives and circumstances - the good times as well as the tough times. Based on the authors' practical experience, sound principles of child development, and anchored in biblical truth, this unique resource will be welcomed by all grandparents who want to be a positive, caring presence in their grandchildren's lives. Whether it's the wonder years (preschool), the exploration years (elementary school age), the "in transition" years (adolescence), or the "on their own" years (young adults), grandparents can enrich the lives of their grandchildren...and enrich their own lives as well. Readers will be inspired to begin right now to build memories and to pass on their own legacy of fun and faith.
