The Opium Emporium: Rising (The Bordello Tales) (Volume 1) Casanova Da Vinci

For more than 300 years, the two towns that border Yorkshire's borders of North and East: Evermore and Borello, have been at war; through each generation since the very first in the late 1700's, to present, both families have been taught by their peers to hate their neighbors, while all the while during countless battles, something has caused a great change in each their retaliations. For the Duchess of Evermore, Lady Melissa EllingtonEvermore, the present day changes in her family have led to the death of her youngest daughter, Carrie Brindley-White. Lady Evermore's husband, Lord David Evermore, the last remaining Evermore, is too saddened to bury his daughter, because he is inconsolably troubled to find that her death was through no accident, but murder. In Borello, Lady Mallandra Gruber, the land owner of Borello and all of its houses and businesses, comes head to head with the hands that deal fate. And from "Evermore" to the dark, seedy confines of "The Quarter", love, passion, lust and depravity may well conquer all within the adult erotic stories of The Bordello Tales. 'Love gained, Love lost, Tragedy'
