Garden of Eden Verlonda Jackson

As a minor, Eden lived a life that most American girls dreamed of. As the only child to her late, beloved mother, Ruby, Eden never wanted for anything. Her beauty, brains, and two very close friendships in Pandora and Quinn were all she needed. As they matured, her friends found exceptional careers, love, and marriage. Eden, however, found everything but. Although Ruby left her daughter extremely wealthy, Eden struggled through the next year of her life. After losing her mother, the man she loved, and unborn child all at once, Eden had one objective on her mind; Rebellion. When Eden's rebelliousness leads her down a path she didn't expect, she began to realize she had bitten off more than she could chew. But is it too late to rid her garden of all the deathly snakes lurking in the shadows? Ruby always told her, "Beware of wolves in sheep's clothing; especially when you're in a vulnerable state." Oh, how she wished she would have listened... Verlonda Jackson pens yet another exciting, fast-pace tale full of life's hardest lessons.
