It's Designed to Do What It Does Do Ken Ham, Buddy Davis

This delightful Christian board book for toddlers will teach your child about an assortment of animals and how they demonstrate God's creativity, goodness, and interest in His world.

After reading It's Designed to Do What It Does Do, children will know that God made everything for a specific purpose and have no doubt that these creatures were the products of creation, not evolution.

Each page spread focuses on a specific animal, including platypus, spiders, and porcupines, and includes adorable illustrations, as well as entertaining animal facts. The book also has an interactive drawing project on each page that, by the end, will show children how to draw an animal.

- A Christian board book written by two of the most popular creationist speakers
- Combines a strong creationist message with educational animal facts
- Features zany googly eyes on the animals, which children will love
