In The Case to Establish God's True Nation on Earth the Heavenly Father's plan for mankind unfolded on the surface of the planet earth as the nations of the West conquered the world and established an unjust controlling element over the international community. The nations of the West used military force to extend the borders of the international community from the Mediterranean to the outer confines of the earth but concealed the inequitable development of the world. The nations of the West established three global orders to maintain a controlling element over the international community, however, covered-up wide spread violations of human rights against weaker nations. From the Roman Empire to the European and American state systems the nations of the West contributed significantly to the advancement of the earth's surface and the betterment of mankind; however, were powerless to end the ongoing global problem of war and terror.
