People want to be healthier and feel good about themselves in the world. Dr. Mathew Hookom, D.D.S. truly believes that and sees it every day through the interactions he has with his patients. Dental implants are not just cosmetic in nature, they are essential for many people, and in this book, you'll learn why. They are not for a certain age group, either. People of all ages need dental implants and everyone should experience the dignity of having confidence to look anyone in the eye and talk without worrying about someone focusing in on their mouth instead of their words. And those beautiful smiles...well, we all have one and just like every time a bell rings an angel gets its wings, every time we smile we are giving ourselves and the recipient a gift from the heart.
