Micaylah and the Never Never: Australia Beckons E H Karl

Fear and faith collide when a life-altering event forces twelve-year-old Micaylah Thompson to travel halfway around the world to the second most inhospitable place on the planet: the Australian outback. There she must trust her Uncle Thad and Aunt Sarah, relatives she barely knows, who are missionaries to Aboriginal tribes in the heart of the Northern Territory. Join Kumquat, an Australian shepherd who accompanies Micaylah on her journey, as she explores the wonders of a land that time seems to have forgotten. This is her story of faith, which deepens and grows, touching those around her during her adventure in the Never Never.
