I find you at the edge of toes curling as the beach calls your name. May you strike at me piercing my senses but oh my, your starbrights still leave me stricken for more. Soft and casual we can play subtle or slow. I touch your five senses one by one. Honestly, these thoughts I know you share as we suggestively hum the rest of the night away. Do you believe we can have this all at once? It begins with a trickle ends with a wave of feline stretches, crisp cool kisses.
