America Rebooted Phil Emmert

There shall be wars and rumors of wars . . . So goes a biblical prophecy.

In America Rebooted, the country becomes a part of that prophecy when war hits with a sudden fury one summer day. Major cities are decimated. Known comforts and technologies are all but obliterated. However, the tenacity of the remaining men and women won't allow their nation to die.

The story focuses on one family in particular--the Hunts from North Carolina, who were completing a Colorado vacation on that ill-fated day--and how their godliness and fortitude carry them through the devastation and confusion.

This is a saga of bravery, ingenuity, and resolve. This is America rebooted.
