Drums In The Hills Frank O. Dolezal

This book has it all, and better yet, it is true! It is a beautiful love story and historical adventure about my grandfather, written lovingly and in tribute to him, by my father, Frank O. Dolezal.

It is a tribute to the human spirit to survive in spite of incredible demands and sacrifice. Set in the Mexican Civil War of 1910, it follows my grandfathers odyssey from Austria to the service of Pancho Villa. It was not his war. But he fought it for his Clarita and a sense of duty to the country he had grown to love. After many adventures, he survives a firing squad, only to lose most of what makes life worth living.
