Book IV in the Series: Tools for the 21st Century Mason

This record book has been designed to be a permanent record of the new Fellow Crafts enrolled in your Masonic Lodge. It serves both as a presentation gift to your Lodge, as well as a "working tool" for use in Fellow Craft degree ceremonies. This roll book contains enough space for over 2,500 entries to include the date of enrollment, name of Fellow Craft, name of presiding Worshipful Master, and name of presiding Secretary. This book is the alternative to legal pads and notebook paper, and when used in degree work, presents a more serious and meaningful tone for the enrollment of new Brothers. Destined to be a valuable record for your Lodge, this book, once completed, will become an important part of your Lodge's library and archives for decades to come.
