The Deceiver: Giving the Devil His Due Nicholas Caputo

It's a question as old as religion itself: If there is a God, and He loves humankind, then why does he allow so much suffering? Why does He so often seem to ignore the heartfelt prayers of the faithful? In this remarkable book, readers go back to the time of creation to answer that question and meet an exceptionally devious and ambitious angel, who later becomes the entity we think of as Satan. Caputo creates a captivating fantasy scenario in which the clever fiend actually tricks God into placing himself at a disadvantage. This imaginative retelling of the creation story, with an emphasis on Satan's perspective, is based largely on Biblical quotations. The Deceiver is a compelling explanation of the word of God and a message of hope and inspiration for all those who are discouraged due to illness, loss and unanswered prayers.
