Walking in Your Assignment: Finding Your Purpose & Destiny Bishop John Francis

What is my purpose and destiny? Why does it seem that something is missing in my life? How can I satisfy the deep yearning, the restlessness inside me? Men and women have been asking themselves these questions for centuries. Some find the answers and live lives full of excitement and abundance of joy-some don't and their lives are full of bitterness and despair. Unless you are walking in your God-given assignment, you will continue to question yourself. When you discover your assignment, your life will change forever. You will enjoy every morning-waking up to all that God designed especially for you! Walking in Your Assignment will launch you into an everyday life you never thought possible. Filled with Holy Spirit-inspired truth, you can begin walking today-hand in hand with the God who loves you dearly and wants to use you to change the world
