Love's Cross-Currents: A Year's Letters (Classic Reprint) Algernon Charles Swinburne

As it has pleased you to disinter this buried bantling of your friends literary youth and to find it worth resurrection, I must inscribe it to you as the person responsible for its revival. Were it not that a friend's judgment may always seem liable to be coloured by the unconscious influence of friendship, I should be reassured as to its deserts by the approval of a master from whose verdict on a stranger's attempt in the creative art of fiction there could be no reasonable appeal and who, I feel bound to acknowledge with gratitude and satisfaction, has honoured it by the sponsorial suggestion of a new and a happier name. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and don't occur in the book.)
